Seeking Management consultants and corporate finance professionals

- Do you want to work for a growing exclusive professional services boutique offering a unique combination of management consulting (strategy & organization and operational excellence) and corporate finance (M&A, divestments, fund raising, etc.)? Do you want to work with clients consisting of large international public companies, private equity firms and small focused start-up companies?
- Do you want to work in a truly entrepreneurial environment where your opinion is highly valued, where you are part of a team and you are seen as a valuable individual rather than a "junior resource"?
- Do you want to have a steep learning curve by working with people who have up to 20 years of experience from large top tier management consulting firms and investment banks? Do you want to quickly take on large responsibilities in a supporting and encouraging environment?
- Do you want to have the opportunity to become a shareholder early on in your career on top of an attractive compensation package?
- Are you an outgoing individual who enjoys working with people in challenging situations and have an excellent academic track record as well as other unique experiences? Is it important for you to have a balance between your professional and private life? Are you at the same time willing to put in the extra hours when required to deliver the results our clients expect?

Then Quest is the right choice for you! Quest is expanding and we are continuously looking for excellent people - women and men - to join our team. We intend to hire 5 additional people until the summer. Send your application in English to rekrytering@questpartners.se. Attach your CV, cover letter, grades from university, upper secondary school and other references of choice.
